

ALL WRONG

The Mistake Is Made by Many Barre Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured, you must know the cause. It is wrong to imagine relief is cure. Backache is kidney ache. You must cure the kidneys. A Barre resident tells you how. Mrs. Margaret Reid, 40 Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "I gave a public statement in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills in 1905, and I am glad to confirm it at this time for the benefit of all persons who suffer from kidney trouble. For more than three years I was bothered by backaches and at night I suffered so intensely that I could not sleep. During damp weather I was always worse, and although I wore plaster I obtained only temporary relief. When Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, I procured a box at E. A. Brown's drug store. They relieved me in a short time and I continued taking them until the pain in my back was relieved. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me in every way, and I have had little or no trouble from my kidneys since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Saved from Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald of Fayetteville, N. C., R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her that she has not been troubled with a cough since. It's the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, grippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage, all bronchial troubles, it has no equal. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy.

Wouldn't Stand It.

"Look here!" exclaimed the angry chappie in the evening suit, "this is an outrage! I've been mistaken for a waiter twice!" "Sh!" whispered the proprietor of the restaurant, "not so loud. I know it. Two waiters have already quit on account of the mistake, and I don't want the rest to go."—Cleveland Leader.

Happy, Happy, Use TIZ

A Marvel for Sore Feet. Acts Right Off.

Sore Feet? Never After Using TIZ—

Good-bye, sore feet, aching feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelling feet, tired feet.

Good-bye, corns, callouses and bunions and raw spots.

You've never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

It acts at once and makes the feet feel remarkably fresh and sore-proof.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—every foot.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

If you don't find all this true after trying a box of TIZ, you can get your money right back.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists' at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

W. H. Pelton has received news of the death of his brother, Roy Pelton, in Texas, from a tubercular trouble, with which he has long been afflicted. Deceased was 26 years of age and was employed on the railroad there. The remains will be brought to Norfolk, N. Y., for burial, and W. H. Pelton leaves here to-night to meet them there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Sanford closed their house on Randolph avenue Wednesday and left for Winchester, Mass., where they will stay for a time with their daughter, Mrs. John Abbott, and then go to New York for a few days' stay with Mrs. Charles DuBois and her family, after which they go to Florida for the winter.

The funeral of Mrs. Nelson Martin was held from her late home Wednesday afternoon at half past one, Rev. Fraser Metzger officiating, and interment was in Southview cemetery. The bearers were Frank Howard, a son-in-law, from Brookton, Mass.; G. L. Martin, Warren Bean and Julius Lamson. Mr. Martin is still very ill, and little hopes are had of his recovery.

Rodney Slack was summoned to Leominster, Mass., on Monday by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Alda Slack Phillips, but found her more comfortable and returned on Wednesday morning and sent his sister, Miss Eunice Slack, a trained nurse, from the sanatorium down to take care of her for a time. Mrs. Julia Slack, another sister from Bradford, joined her at White River Junction and expects to remain with her all winter.

Nothing Very Radical About Colonel Roosevelt's Opinions After All.

Through the department known as the "Interpreter's House," in The American Magazine for December, those critics who find revolutionary and dangerous material in Mr. Roosevelt's speeches are very rationally reassured. On the subject of the colonel's "attack" on the supreme court, the article says:

"But I don't see why you should be worried. I have read the colonel's speeches, and, except for their explosive frequency and the size and enthusiasm of his audience, I can't find anything he said into the supreme court, spoke of 'fossilized' members of that august tribunal, but you noticed no general resentment of its words, perhaps it was because there is no general resentment. Perhaps a very large number of our people agree with him. That doesn't mean they want to tear down the supreme court. It means that they maintain the right which has been freely exercised in this country since Jefferson had his row with Marshall, of criticizing the supreme court. They don't need the authority of Theodore Roosevelt or anybody else to do that. Since when has a majority of one on the supreme court been sacred? How can you convince a Kansas farmer who remembers what his father said about Roger Taney, that it is treasonable to question the infallibility of Justice McKenna or Justice Holmes? As for the colonel's belief that the supreme court should study the necessities of the times more than it does and not stick too hard to pedantic constructions of the constitution, that is an opinion that is shared by more than one member of the court. No one can shake the popular faith in the supreme court but the supreme court itself. If the public is not edified by the spectacle of a number of venerable gentlemen remaining on the bench long after they should have gone into honorable retirement, it is because it is not an edifying spectacle. The supreme court is too powerful and too essential to the public welfare to be packed either from within or from without, in favor of one or another school of constitutional theorists, through the ambitions of politicians or through a superstitious dread of any individual or any popular tendency."

MONTPELIER.

Bright's Disease Caused Death of Carlos S. Jacobs.

Carlos S. Jacobs died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. L. Sparrow, of Bright's disease, at the age of 81 years. He was born in Berlin December 20, 1829, the son of Samuel and Melinda Jacobs. February 2, 1850, he married Mary Jane Hathaway, and most of their married life was spent in Calais, where for 39 years he lived on the same farm. About a year ago they moved to Hardwick and lived there eight months, coming last August to make their home with their daughter. Mr. Jacobs was a member of the Christian church in Calais and was quite prominent in that community. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Sparrow of this city and Mrs. H. E. Burnap of Hardwick. The funeral was held at noon to-day from the home of Mrs. Sparrow and interment was at the Robinson cemetery in Calais this afternoon. Rev. Ward R. Clark conducted the services.

You Can Work Near a Window in winter when you have a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a portable radiator which can be moved to any part of a room, or to any room in a house. When you have a

PERFECTION OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless you do not have to work close to the stove, which is usually far from the window. You can work where you wish, and be warm. You can work on dull winter days in the full light near the window, without being chilled to the bone.

The Perfection Oil Heater quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap, put in like a cork in a bottle, is attached by a chain. This heater has a cool handle and a damper top.

The Perfection Oil Heater has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged and can be unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.
